The Resurrection & the Life – Pastor Jon Donohue
Sunday, May 24, 2020

- Opening Prayer

As you approach your time of worship this morning, take some time to quiet your spirit, repent of anything that has been hindering your relationship with the Lord, and invite Holy Spirit into your space, asking Him to move and speak as He sees fit.

- Scripture Reading

Psalm 16:1-11

A miktam[a] of David.

1 Keep me safe, my God,
for in you I take refuge.

2 I say to the Lord, "You are my Lord;
apart from you I have no good thing."

3 I say of the holy people who are in the land,
"They are the noble ones in whom is all my delight."

4 Those who run after other gods will suffer more and more.
I will not pour out libations of blood to such gods
or take up their names on my lips.

5 Lord, you alone are my portion and my cup;
you make my lot secure.

6 The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places;
surely I have a delightful inheritance.

7 I will praise the Lord, who counsels me;
even at night my heart instructs me.

8 I keep my eyes always on the Lord.
With him at my right hand, I will not be shaken.

9 Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices;
my body also will rest secure,

10 because you will not abandon me to the realm of the dead,
nor will you let your faithful[b] one see decay.

11 You make known to me the path of life;
you will fill me with joy in your presence,
with eternal pleasures at your right hand.

- Scripture Reading

1 Corinthians 15:20-23, 51-57

But Christ has indeed been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep. For since death came through a man, the resurrection of the dead comes also through a man. For as in Adam all die, so in Christ all will be made alive. But each in his own turn: Christ, the firstfruits; then, when he comes, those who belong to him...

Listen, I tell you a mystery: We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed-- in a flash, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, the dead will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed. For the perishable must clothe itself with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality. When the perishable has been clothed with the imperishable, and the mortal with immortality, then the saying that is written will come true: "Death has been swallowed up in victory." "Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?" The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God! He gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

- Discussion

1. What most impacted you from the Scriptures or message today? Why do you think that is?
2. The final resurrection at the return of Christ restores God's created order. The resurrection of Lazarus gave us a glimpse of that future hope. Death will not have final victory. How does this encourage you today?
3. Why is it important to see the PERSON of Jesus as the Resurrection and the Life?
4. How will you live differently in light of these truths this week?
