Happy New Year!

Pastor Jon Donohue

Sunday, December 27, 2020

- Opening Prayer

Welcome! As we approach the New Year, it's a good time to remember all the Lord has blessed us with over the past year. As you settle your spirit, allow your focus to shift to the many blessings He has provided for you in 2020. Then pray together, welcoming Him with thanks into your presence.

- Scripture Reading

Psalm 111:1-10 Praise the LORD. I will extol the LORD with all my heart in the council of the upright and in the assembly. Great are the works of the LORD; they are pondered by all who delight in them. Glorious and majestic are his deeds, and his righteousness endures forever. He has caused his wonders to be remembered; the LORD is gracious and compassionate. He provides food for those who fear him; he remembers his covenant forever. He has shown his people the power of his works, giving them the lands of other nations. The works of his hands are faithful and just; all his precepts are trustworthy. They are steadfast for ever and ever, done in faithfulness and uprightness. He provided redemption for his people; he ordained his covenant forever-- holy and awesome is his name. The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom; all who follow his precepts have good understanding. To him belongs eternal praise.

- Responsive Worship

1. Looking back in this past year, what blessings has the Lord given YOU? Share with one another.
2. Looking forward, what promises give you hope for your future?

- Responsive Reading

(Leader) Through the work of Jesus Christ, we belong to him.

(All) Through Jesus' work on the cross, God gave us a new name.

(Leader) Let us discover anew and accept with new assurance that we are who God says we are—holy and redeemed people who belong to him.

(All) Thank you, our Father, for changing our name.

(Leader) We shall no longer be called Wounded, Outcast, Lonely, or Afraid.

(All) Our new name shall be The Holy People, the Redeemed of the Lord, Sought After, the City No Longer Deserted.

(Leader) People of God, let us take up our new name with new confidence to live this year as the people of God we are called to be, so that we may indeed be "Sought After." May others seek God's face because of us in this coming year.

(All) AMEN!
