Pastor Jon Donohue

- Opening Prayer

Settle in and quiet your spirit. Much has happened this week. Many distractions abound. Take them to the Lord and hand them over. Ask Jesus to speak through this time together. Ask the Lord to make your heart ready to receive what He has for you. Welcome Him in.

- Scripture Reading

Exodus 34:6-8 The LORD passed in front of Moses, calling out, "Yahweh! The LORD! The God of compassion and mercy! I am slow to anger and filled with unfailing love and faithfulness. I lavish unfailing love to a thousand generations. I forgive iniquity, rebellion, and sin. But I do not excuse the guilty. I lay the sins of the parents upon their children and grandchildren; the entire family is affected--even children in the third and fourth generations." Moses immediately threw himself to the ground and worshiped.

Psalms 146:1-10 Praise the LORD! Let all that I am praise the LORD. I will praise the LORD as long as I live. I will sing praises to my God with my dying breath. Don't put your confidence in powerful people; there is no help for you there. When they breathe their last, they return to the earth, and all their plans die with them. But joyful are those who have the God of Israel as their helper, whose hope is in the LORD their God. He made heaven and earth, the sea, and everything in them. He keeps every promise forever. He gives justice to the oppressed and food to the hungry. The LORD frees the prisoners. The LORD opens the eyes of the blind. The LORD lifts up those who are weighed down. The LORD loves the godly. The LORD protects the foreigners among us. He cares for the orphans and widows, but he frustrates the plans of the wicked. The LORD will reign forever. He will be your God, O Jerusalem, throughout the generations. Praise the LORD!

3. In what ways is Jesus calling you to live in faith rather than fear today?
4. What will you do differently this week in light of His calling?
